Biographical Sketch

Sgt. 1st Class Jason Davis is an Army recruiter serving as a Recruiter Liaison with the Gold Demonstration Team.

This is his sixth year as a member of the Golden Knights. He entered the Army in 1984 as a heavy anti-armor weapons system operator.

His military career guided him through tours in Fort Stewart, Georgia and Germany before permanently changing his military occupational specialty to recruiter.

This is Davis' second tour on the U.S. Army Parachute Team, serving before as a precision parachute demonstrator. Davis has completed more than 4,000 freefall jumps travelling around the country and world. Davis also enjoys skiing and hunting.
